Where are your ancestors from? What is your regional genetic make-up?

What type of diet staples are from those regions?

What differences in your modern blended diet are there from a traditionally region-based diet?

What do your nutritional, emotional, and educational pyramids have (and lack)?